Yuill's Tools has been under construction for a very long time, but in August 2008, the 'penny dropped.' It was time to get moving. Knowing how long it can take to write a book, and how easily other priorities creep in, I decided to focus on just one chapter at a time. Because each of the Yuill's Tools stands on its own, I wondered if others might be interested in accompanying me along the way ... piece by piece.

Well, there is nothing like a promise made to important people to get you going!

The first Yuill's Tools Book and Breakfast event was held on October 17, 2008. Sixteen of us gathered in the sunny atrium at Kristy's Restaurant, and the draft of the Pride and Joy chapter was presented. Breakfasts and chapters have followed each month since then.

I want to thank my colleagues and friends for their input, encouragement, and trust ... that I would meet my deadlines! They are (in alphabetical order by last name) ... Sheril Armstrong, Gita Baack, John Butcher, Jennifer Bulman, Janice Calnan, Margot Cameron, Adrian Camfield, Jim Carty, Lucie Chartrand, Inta Cinite, Julia Cipriani, Bob Czerny, Julie Francisco, Lynn Frappier, Andy Gabe, Yann Girard, Alejandro Gonzalez, Tracey Hagerman, Cille Harris, Vonnie Kline, Susan Laing, Yvette Leclair, Sevilla Leowinata, Margaret Lerhe, Maureen McGee, Bill Mills, Elaine Mollema, Geneviève Moore, Jim Muckle, Ginette Hébert-Munson, Chantal Paul, Linda Pond, Pamela Schreiner, Alan Sobel, Patricia Sommerville,
